

PRAYER DIARY

Church Families: Each week we pray for folks in Ballygilbert, family by family. Pray this week for: Rosemary Harvey; the Henderson family - Roy, Pamela, Laura and Christopher; the Henderson family - Catherine and William; Ena Henderson.

Martin Family: We continue to pray for the family of Lorna Martin, after her funeral last weekend. Pray that they would know the strength and encouragements of grace; that they would live in the hope of the Gospel; and learn the lessons of Lorna's faith in the days to come.

"You cannot walk in the fullness of Christ and live on 5 minute devotions." - David Wilkerson

Venezuela: The disruption in Venezuela is worthy of our prayers but also the Church there. Christians in Venezuela have a hard time, with persecution common. So we can pray for our brothers and sisters there, that the courage of Easter would be theirs, that their worship and witness would be bold, and that many would turn to Christ and true faith in the midst of national turmoil.

*"The world embraces Christmas in a way it has never embraced Good Friday or Easter.
The world sees Christmas as being* *rather affirming - it's about peace and goodwill. Isn't that nice?

Actually, the message of Christmas is incredibly confrontational.
It says the reason for Christmas is that the world's wisdom has failed."*
Tim Keller

Communion: This Communion Sunday, take a moment to pray for yourself. We're warned not to partake in Communion lightly or unthinkingly, since it is a solemn memorial and a powerful call to action. So pray that we would renew an active faith in 2026; commit yourself to God again and look for his leading towards service to others; and ask God to bless our time together in his Word and around his table.

Word for the week:

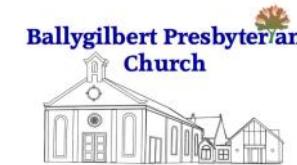

From Psalm 23.2-3

*He makes me lie down in green pastures,
He leads me beside quiet waters,
He refreshes my soul.*

From Pamela

On behalf of my daughter's, Sarah and Fiona, and myself, I wish to thank everyone for their support following John's death. Whether this was supplying food, calling to see us, the kind messages received or attending John's Service of Thanksgiving.

We have received so many cards and messages of support, we are overwhelmed, and are so proud that John was so well thought of and held in such a high regard.

Thanks also goes to Craig and Derek for leading a very fitting and personal service in celebration of John's life and for Ivan's eloquent choice of music which he played beautifully. Special thanks to Linda and the team who organised and served the food after the service. Pamela
